

SELECTEE FRED NICHOLAS
Leaves four jobs behind him

Four responsible campus offices were vacated October 9th when the draft army reached out and took the holder of all four posts—Fred Nicholas.

His departure from civilian and student life leaves open the (a) assistant editorship of the Daily Trojan, (b) presidency of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic fraternity, (c) presidency of Tau Epsilon Phi fraternity, and (d) the post of A.S.S.C. elections commissioner.

Succeeding to jobs (a) and (b) is/are Arnold Lieberman, fellow laborer in the ALUMNI REVIEW vineyard (see "Off the Ribbon" on page 13), who himself is fighting off the grasping hands of Draft Board No. 240.

To Lieberman, the best part of his dual job is that SDX presidency, for it carries with it a ride to New Orleans in November for the fraternity's national convention.
