

Frederick M. Nicholas founded the country's first bar-sponsored, public interest law firm

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy spoke at a special luncheon as our mission grew

1978

Rep. Barbara Jordan was recipient of the 1989 Douglas Award

1986

1989

1991

Executive Director Steve Nissen and 1986 Douglas Award honoree Gloria Steinem

Actor Louis Gosset Jr., emcee of the 1991 Douglas Dinner, with honoree Alex Haley

Public Counsel acquires our first headquarters

1993

1999

Sargent Shriver, 1999 William O. Douglas Award honoree, and daughter Maria Shriver.

LA County Supervisor Mike Antonovich (center) with Jenny Weisz and President/CEO Dan Grunfeld

2003

Vice President Al Gore, recipient of the 2003 Douglas Award, with Richard Ziman, longtime Public Counsel supporter

Public Counsel dedicated our current headquarters

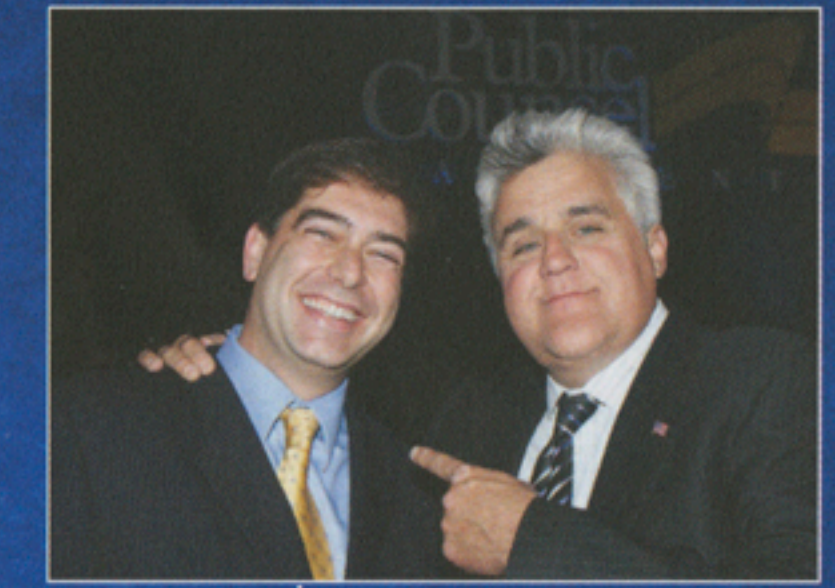

2005

2007

Secretary of State Madeleine K. Albright, Douglas Award honoree, with her predecessor Warren M. Christopher, who presented the award

Hernán Vera, President/CEO, with Jay Leno

2008

2010

2010: Catherine Lhamon, Director of the Impact Litigation Project, with Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa, launched a lawsuit to protect Los Angeles children from teacher layoffs.

Dedication of the Frederick M. Nicholas Garden of Hope, Hernán Vera with Past Presidents Stan Levy, Fred Nicholas, (Host) Mike Farrell, Steve Nissen, Charles Palmer & Dan Grunfeld.